Sophos Endpoint and Server Protection Promotion

Customers receive a discount of up to 30%

Ep Svr

Eastern Europe – Valid until March 31, 2023

Cyber threats constantly grow more and more complex. Nearly 7 in 10 organizations of any size fall victim to attacks at some point. Don't let your customers be an easy target for attacks. Check in on their current security measures. With Sophos solutions, you can offer the ability to:

Stop unknown malware by deep learning and AI technology

Block ransomware attacks – and never pay a penny to get their data back

Prevent unauthorized encryption attempts

Protect credentials from theft, plus detect malicious traffic

Stop hackers from leveraging vulnerabilities and compromising unpatched hosts

Automatically detect and prioritize potential threats using EDR technology

Manage all above with one Sophos Central system – for free

With Sophos MDR, your customers' business is protected 24/7 by a team of highly-trained threat hunters and response experts.

Until March 31, 2023, customers receive a discount of up to 30 % on our Endpoint and Server solutions when buying two- or three-year licenses with a maximum of 500 licenses per product.

Please reach out to your distributor or Sophos representative if you have any further questions.
